

WEDNESDAY 20 MAY, 7PM

THE VALUE OF VALUES TO BUILD A WORLD FOR THE COMMON GOOD

Professor Kamran Mofid

Founder of Globalisation for the Common Good Initiative (GCGI)

Venue and registration: The London School of Economics Alumni Theatre (NAB.LG.09), New Academic Building, on the corner of Lincoln's Inn Fields and Kingsway. To register, e-mail lecture@worldfaiths.org with your name and a note of how many people will be attending.

A free, open meeting. What would a world without poverty, hunger or injustice look like, and how could it function? Impossible dream? This international expert will explain why he believes we do already have the means to create a society that can support everyone's needs.

GLOBALISATION FOR THE COMMON GOOD INITIATIVE

MORE INFORMATION ON WWW.GCGI.INFO

20 MAY, 7PM
LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

The World Congress of Faiths is a longstanding interfaith organisation, bringing people together
in dialogue and pioneering the role of spirituality in promoting the common good.